Men, let's have some real talk. If weddings were all about us, the ceremony would be scheduled around football games and we'd use double malt scotch in the toast. In a world where weddings were all about men, she would propose to you. Just drop down on one knee and present you with an 80-inch 4K TV on which she spent no less than three-months' salary. Here's some more real talk.

That's not the real world. In this world, you propose to the woman of your dreams with a stunning diamond ring from White Diamonds. Happy wife, happy life. White Diamonds, 3031 13th Avenue South, Fargo.
